Caris Life Sciences Announces Preliminary Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2025 Results

Full year revenue growth of approximately 94% driven by strong performance in molecular profiling services

IRVING, Texas, January 12, 2026— Caris Life Sciences, Inc. (NASDAQ: CAI), a leading, patient-centric, next-generation AI TechBio company and precision medicine pioneer, today announced preliminary, unaudited financial results for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2025.

Fourth quarter 2025 preliminary unaudited financial results

For the three-month period ended December 31, 2025, as compared to the same period of 2024:

- Total revenue of approximately $281 million, an increase of approximately 116%.
  - Consisting of approximately $270 million of Molecular Profiling services revenue (including approximately $81 million of prior period true-ups) and approximately $11 million of Pharma research and developmental services revenue.
- Completed approximately 52,700 clinical therapy selection cases, an increase of approximately 20% and consisting of approximately 44,150 MI Profile cases and approximately 8,550 Caris Assure cases.

Full year 2025 preliminary unaudited financial results

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2025, as compared to the same period of 2024:

- Total revenue of approximately $800 million, an increase of approximately 94%.
  - Consisting of approximately $755 million of Molecular Profiling services revenue (including approximately $33 million of prior year true-ups) and approximately $45 million of Pharma research and developmental services revenue.
- Completed approximately 199,300 clinical therapy selection cases, an increase of 22% and consisting of approximately 170,300 MI Profile cases and approximately 29,000 Caris Assure cases.

Preliminary unaudited cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash and marketable securities were approximately $802 million as of December 31, 2025, a net increase of approximately $43 million from September 30, 2025.

“2025 was a breakthrough year for Caris as we became a public company and demonstrated the scale and impact of our comprehensive molecular profiling platform,” said David D. Halbert, Founder, Chairman and CEO of Caris Life Sciences. “We continue to be focused on expanding clinical adoption, advancing a differentiated pipeline, and building the foundation for what we believe will be a new standard in precision medicine.”

This announcement comes ahead of the Company’s 1:30 Pacific time presentation today at the 44th Annual J.P. Morgan Healthcare Conference, which will include these results as well as additional business updates. Accompanying materials for this presentation will be posted, and live and replay webcasts will be available on our investor relations website at <https://investor.carislifesciences.com>.

Caris Life Sciences has not completed preparation of its financial statements for the fourth quarter or full year of 2025. The revenue, case volumes, and cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash and marketable securities presented in this release for the fourth quarter and the year ended December 31, 2025, are preliminary and unaudited and are thus inherently uncertain and subject to change as we complete the review and preparation of our financial results. The company is in the process of completing its customary year-end close and review procedures as of and for the year ended December 31, 2025, and there can be no assurance that final results for this period will not differ from these estimates. During the preparation of Caris Life Sciences' consolidated financial statements and related notes as of and for the year ended December 31, 2025, the company's independent registered public accountants may identify items that could cause final reported results to be materially different from the preliminary financial estimates presented herein.

Caris Life Sciences plans to report its complete fourth quarter and full year 2025 financial results during its earnings call in late February 2026.
